Republicany Jubilant ! The Republican Head Quarters was crowded last evening at an early hour, every Lincoln man with the impress of victory on his coun enance. Soon the Wards began to report and the shouts to go up. The Townships came thundering in, and the cheers were loader and clearer. The reports from the Reserve Counties gave heavier and heavier Lincoln claps. Pennsylvania began to speak her increased majorities, and the Head Quarters rang loader than ever. Indiana followed suit, and yell on yell went up for hellfooshers. The vote of 600 in Wheeling for Lincoln, over a thousand in Baltimore, 200 majority in Wilmington, Delaware, and s plurality in St. Louis, were greeted with desfening applause. New England's avalanches were echoed with a will by her free sons in the West, and Michigan, Chicago, Wisconsin, etc., etc., gave no rest to stentorian lungs. "Anything from New York?" was constantly inquired, the Empire State being the most hotly contested point of the battle-field. The first reports were greeted with great enthusiasm, and when it was announced that a private dispatch from reliable authority had passed over the wire to Old Abe stating his majority at 50,000, is was perfectly irrepressible. sted daught, fell into a Festerday. She was about ton years old and alone at the house, Mrs. Boyle being at market. THE NAME.—We yesterday stated that a man had been killed by being run over by the cars at the foot of Water street hill. The name of the man was Francis Needham,

He was a sober and industrious man, and his death must have been solely by accident.

The whole train evidently passed over him.

He leaves a wife and child.

enth Ward Republicans are in a minority is ven additional towns, including Providence, gives the Ward, but they make up in spirit and life much that they lack in numbers. Yesterday morning at half past five, some seventy Republicans, about half of the Republican voters in the Ward, were at the poles gains for Breckinglidge.
Raleigh, Ball-201 majority, State gone for and at plump six, they organised a Board and opened the polls. Shortly after, Councilman Dixon came along and was startled to find ardent Republicans in control of the election boxes, where, according to his idea, none but Democrats should held office. He proclaimed the election illegal. The Re-Gov. Pennington elected to Congress by 400 to publicans, to please and satisfy him, agreed In the Trenton Legislative District, Yard, to try it over again, and the result was that the same Board was elected. But this did not satisfy the Councilman, so he demanded
